

14th Annual Conference on Advancing School Mental Health: Minneapolis, MN, November 2-4, 2009

The University of Maryland Center for School Mental Health, with the IDEA Partnership (www.ideapartnership.org), is sponsoring the 14th Annual Conference on Advancing School Mental Health, November 2-4, 2009, in Minneapolis, Minnesota. As a participant of the CSMH conference, you will gain knowledge about the latest best practices, resources, and tools. You will be able to learn from and network with key stakeholders in the school mental health field (e.g., students, families, educators, mental health providers, health providers, advocates, administrators, policy makers). We have designed a high quality, interdisciplinary conference packed full with updated information and opportunities to gain new skills and advance knowledge related to school mental health!

There will be twelve separate conference strands corresponding to the twelve practice groups within the larger National Community of Practice on Collaborative School Behavioral Health. These strands are listed below:

- Child Welfare and School Mental Health
- Connecting School Mental Health and Positive Behavior Supports
- Connecting School Mental Health with Juvenile Justice and Dropout Prevention
- Education: An Essential Component of Systems of Care
- Family-School-Community Partnerships
- Improving School Mental Health for Youth with Disabilities
- Learning the Language: Promoting Effective Ways for Interdisciplinary Collaboration
- Psychiatry and Schools
- School Mental Health for Military Families
- Social, Emotional and Mental Health in Schools
- Quality and Evidence-Based Practice
- Youth Involvement and Leadership

Conference registration information is now available, by clicking here. If you would like to be added to the Center's mailing list, please sign up on the Center's homepage.

We hope to see you in Minneapolis!
