

SAVE-THE-DATE

AN OUTSTANDING TRAINING OPPORTUNITY IN SCHOOL HEALTH

Thursday, August 3, 2017 and Friday, August 4, 2017
Radisson North Hotel
2004 Greenspring Drive
Timonium, Maryland

Conference Rate: $100 (includes two days of training plus contact hours)

- Earn up to 12 continuing education hours
- Participate in highly relevant school health topics

School Health Interdisciplinary Program (SHIP) is co-sponsored by the Center for School Mental Health University of Maryland; the Maryland State Department of Education, the Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, the Maryland Department of Human Resources; and the Maryland Department of Juvenile Services.

The target audience for the conference includes: school nurses, caregivers, school social workers, school psychologists, school-based health center staff, administrators, after-school program providers, alternative program staff, child advocates, health educators, school teachers and support staff, community and faith-based representatives, child serving agency staff, mental health practitioners, substance use providers, pediatricians, occupational therapists, physicians, psychologists, psychiatrists, pupil personnel workers, school counselors, school resource officers, social workers, and special educators.

For more information about the conference and registration, please contact Christina Huntley at the Center for School Mental Health at 410-706-0980 or chuntley@psych.umaryland.edu

